FOR EVENT PLANNERS

4 things your event planner website needs

The best work you've done is in Instagram stories that expired. Couples can't see it now.

1. A portfolio on your own site
2. Starting prices per package
3. Your style, stated before credentials
4. An inquiry form that asks the basics

EVENT PLANNERS

1

A portfolio on your own site

Pick ten events, name the venue and the season, and keep them on a page that stays up.

Starting prices per package

Full planning, month-of coordination, day-of only. Each with a price it starts from.

3

Your style, stated before credentials

Rustic, minimal or maximalist: say which one you do best before listing your training.

4

An inquiry form that asks the basics

Date, guest count, venue if booked, budget range. Four fields can save a lot of emails.
