

A WALK THROUGH

Budapest on foot

7 stops · about 5.0 km

STOP 01 · 17 MIN WALK TO NEXT

Hungarian Parliament

Imre Steindl designed the Hungarian Parliament in neo-Gothic style, drawing on the Vienna City Hall.

STOP 02 · 1 MIN WALK TO NEXT

Fisherman's Bastion

Fisherman's Bastion was built by Frigyes Schulek on a stretch of the Buda Castle walls.

STOP 03 · 13 MIN WALK TO NEXT

Matthias Church

Franz Joseph I and Charles IV, the last two Kings of Hungary, were crowned in Matthias Church.

STOP 04 · 7 MIN WALK TO NEXT

Buda Castle

Buda Castle houses the Hungarian National Gallery, the Budapest Historical Museum and the National Széchényi Library.

STOP 05 · 14 MIN WALK TO NEXT

Chain Bridge

The Széchenyi Chain Bridge opened in 1849 as the first permanent bridge across the Danube in Hungary.

Photo: Marc Ryckaert · CC BY 3.0

STOP 06 · 13 MIN WALK TO NEXT

St. Stephen's Basilica

St. Stephen's Basilica is named for Stephen, the first King of Hungary, whose right hand is housed in its reliquary.

Photo: Jgrec4 · CC BY-SA 4.0

STOP 07 · LAST STOP

Dohány Street Synagogue

The Dohány Street Synagogue in Budapest is a centre of Neolog Judaism and worships in the Ashkenazi rite.

Travelhour

Plan your Budapest walk

S travelhour.app ur turns them into one walking route.

Free on the App Store

Link in bio

Photos: Wikimedia Commons · full credits in caption