

SWIPE →

A WALK THROUGH

Amsterdam on foot

7 stops · about 5.3 km

Photo: Gerd Eichmann · CC BY-SA 4.0

STOP 01 · 7 MIN WALK TO NEXT

Oude Kerk

The Oude Kerk is Amsterdam's oldest structure, consecrated in 1306 and a Reformed church since 1578.

Photo: Deerpeter · CC BY-SA 4.0

STOP 02 · 11 MIN WALK TO NEXT

Dam Square

Dam Square's weigh house was demolished in 1808 by order of Louis Bonaparte, newly resident in the Royal Palace.

Photo: Dietmar Rabich · CC BY-SA 4.0

STOP 03 · 13 MIN WALK TO NEXT

Anne Frank House

The Anne Frank Foundation was set up to protect the building; the museum opened on 3 May 1960 with the Secret Annex.

STOP 04 · 19 MIN WALK TO NEXT

Begijnhof

Het Houten Huys at 34 Begijnhof dates from about 1420 and is one of two wooden houses left in central Amsterdam.

Photo: Cornelis Ketel · Public domain

STOP 05 · 6 MIN WALK TO NEXT

Rijksmuseum

The Rijksmuseum was founded in The Hague in 1798 and moved to Amsterdam in 1808; it shows 8,000 of a million objects.

STOP 06 · 15 MIN WALK TO NEXT

Van Gogh Museum

The Van Gogh Museum unveiled Sunset at Montmajour in 2013, dated to 4 July 1888 by a letter Vincent wrote to Theo.

STOP 07 · LAST STOP

Vondelpark

The Vondelpark opened in 1865 as Nieuwe Park and was later renamed after the 17th-century poet Joost van den Vondel.

Travelhour

Plan your Amsterdam walk

Swipe the landmarks you love. Travelhour turns them into one walking route.

Free on the App Store

travelhour.app

Photos: Wikimedia Commons · full credits in caption