

A WALK THROUGH

Lisbon on foot

6 stops · about 10.5 km

STOP 01 · 19 MIN WALK TO NEXT

Belém Tower

Belém Tower, built from local lioz limestone, has a bastion and a 30-metre four-storey tower in the Manueline style.

STOP 02 · 103 MIN WALK TO NEXT

Jerónimos Monastery

Jerónimos Monastery held the tombs of the Aviz dynasty from the 16th century and passed to the Casa Pia in 1833.

STOP 03 · 1 MIN WALK TO NEXT

Carmo Convent

The Carmo Convent's ruined Gothic church is the main visible trace of the 1755 Lisbon earthquake in the old city.

STOP 04 · 9 MIN WALK TO NEXT

Santa Justa Lift

The Santa Justa Lift opened in 1902 and is the only remaining vertical lift among Lisbon's urban lifts.

STOP 05 · 8 MIN WALK TO NEXT

São Jorge Castle

São Jorge Castle has been a royal palace, military barracks and national archive, and is now a museum.

STOP 06 · LAST STOP

Lisbon Cathedral

Lisbon Cathedral, the Sé, is the oldest church in the city and has been a National Monument since 1910.

Travelhour

Plan your Lisbon walk

Swipe the landmarks you love. Travelhour turns them into one walking route.

Free on the App Store

travelhour.app

Photos: Wikimedia Commons · full credits in caption