

SWIPE →

A WALK THROUGH

Berlin

on foot

5 stops · about 4.4 km

Photo: U.S. Army photo Photo Credit: US... · Public domain

STOP 01 · 22 MIN WALK TO NEXT

Checkpoint Charlie

Checkpoint Charlie was the best-known crossing between East and West Berlin during the Cold War.

STOP 02 · 5 MIN WALK TO NEXT

Brandenburg Gate

The Brandenburg Gate was built from 1788 to 1791 for Frederick William II and is crowned by Schadow's bronze quadriga.

STOP 03 · 23 MIN WALK TO NEXT

Reichstag

Dem deutschen Volke, To the German People, was placed on the Reichstag in 1916 over Wilhelm II's objections.

STOP 04 · 8 MIN WALK TO NEXT

Museum Island

Museum Island in Berlin became a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1999; the James Simon Gallery opened there in 2019.

Photo: Ansgar Koreng · CC BY 3.0 de

STOP 05 · LAST STOP

Berlin Cathedral

Berlin Cathedral began as a castle chapel for the Berlin Palace and is one of Europe's most important dynastic tombs.

Travelhour

Plan your Berlin walk

Swipe the landmarks you love. Travelhour turns them into one walking route.

Free on the App Store

travelhour.app

Photos: Wikimedia Commons · full credits in caption