

A WALK THROUGH

London on foot

8 stops · about 9.6 km

STOP 01 · 18 MIN WALK TO NEXT

Buckingham Palace

Buckingham Palace is the monarch's official residence and also the administrative headquarters of the UK monarchy.

STOP 02 · 4 MIN WALK TO NEXT

Westminster Abbey

Westminster Abbey has hosted the coronations of 40 English and British monarchs and is the burial site of 18.

Photo: Julian Herzog · CC BY 4.0

STOP 03 · 15 MIN WALK TO NEXT

Big Ben

Big Ben is the nickname of the Great Bell, after Sir Benjamin Hall; the clock runs on its original mechanism.

STOP 04 · 22 MIN WALK TO NEXT

Trafalgar Square

Trafalgar Square takes its name from the Battle of Trafalgar, a British naval victory over France and Spain.

STOP 05 · 36 MIN WALK TO NEXT

British Museum

Established in 1753 around Sir Hans Sloane's collection, the British Museum now holds eight million artefacts.

STOP 06 · 29 MIN WALK TO NEXT

St Paul's Cathedral

Sir Christopher Wren designed the present St Paul's Cathedral in the English Baroque style; it was completed in 1710.

STOP 07 · 5 MIN WALK TO NEXT

Tower of London

The White Tower, which gives the Tower of London its name, was built by William the Conqueror in 1078.

STOP 08 · LAST STOP

Tower Bridge

Tower Bridge was built from 1886 to 1894 but is maintained by the City Bridge Foundation, a trust founded in 1282.

Travelhour

Plan your London walk

S travelhour.app ur

turns them into one walking route.

Free on the App Store

Link in bio

Photos: Wikimedia Commons · full credits in caption