

A WALK THROUGH

Florence

on foot

8 stops · about 3.7 km

Photo: Srecan · CC BY-SA 4.0

STOP 01 · 3 MIN WALK TO NEXT

Museum of San Marco

San Marco's Dominican pharmacy funded the friary and its charity; one recipe mixed wine, coca leaves and kola nuts.

STOP 02 · 8 MIN WALK TO NEXT

Accademia Gallery

The Galleria dell'Accademia holds Michelangelo's David and adjoins the fine arts academy, yet the two are unconnected.

STOP 03 · 7 MIN WALK TO NEXT

Florence Cathedral

Florence Cathedral was begun in 1296 to Arnolfo di Cambio's design and completed by 1436 with Brunelleschi's dome.

Photo: Zairon · CC BY 4.0

STOP 04 · 2 MIN WALK TO NEXT

Palazzo Vecchio

Palazzo Vecchio, Florence's town hall, overlooks Piazza della Signoria, where a copy of Michelangelo's David stands.

STOP 05 · 3 MIN WALK TO NEXT

Uffizi Gallery

Vasari began the Uffizi in 1560 for Cosimo I de' Medici to bring Florence's administrative offices under one roof.

Photo: Ingo Mehling · CC BY-SA 4.0

STOP 06 · 7 MIN WALK TO NEXT

Ponte Vecchio

A 1565 decree barred butchers from the Ponte Vecchio; today jewellers, art dealers and souvenir sellers hold the shops.

STOP 07 · 19 MIN WALK TO NEXT

Palazzo Pitti

The core of Palazzo Pitti dates from 1458, when it was the town residence of Luca Pitti, a Florentine banker.

STOP 08 · LAST STOP

Santa Croce

Santa Croce in Florence is known as the Temple of the Italian Glories for the notable Italians buried there.

Travelhour

Plan your Florence walk

Swipe the landmarks you love. Travelhour turns them into one walking route.

Free on the App Store

travelhour.app

Photos: Wikimedia Commons · full credits in caption