

A WALK THROUGH

Prague on foot

7 stops · about 4.8 km

STOP 01 · 2 MIN WALK TO NEXT

St. Vitus Cathedral

After Matthias of Arras died in 1352, 23-year-old Peter Parler took charge of building St. Vitus Cathedral.

STOP 02 · 16 MIN WALK TO NEXT

Prague Castle

Prague Castle, built in the 9th century, is the president's workplace and keeps the Bohemian Crown Jewels hidden inside.

STOP 03 · 11 MIN WALK TO NEXT

Charles Bridge

Charles Bridge was begun in 1357 under King Charles IV and replaced the Judith Bridge, damaged by a flood in 1342.

Photo: Godot13 · CC BY-SA 4.0

STOP 04 · 1 MIN WALK TO NEXT

Astronomical Clock

The Prague Orloj's astronomical dial dates to 1410, made by Mikuláš of Kadaň and the mathematician Jan Šindel.

STOP 05 · 14 MIN WALK TO NEXT

Old Town Square

The Marian Column on Old Town Square was demolished on 3 November 1918 to celebrate independence and re-erected in 2020.

STOP 06 · 20 MIN WALK TO NEXT

Wenceslas Square

Wenceslas Square was the Horse Market of Prague's New Town; Karel Havlíček Borovský proposed its new name in 1848.

STOP 07 · LAST STOP

Dancing House

The Dancing House was designed in 1992 by Vlado Milunić with Frank Gehry and completed four years later.

Travelhour

Plan your Prague walk

S travelhour.app ur

turns them into one walking route.

Free on the App Store

Link in bio

Photos: Wikimedia Commons · full credits in caption