

A WALK THROUGH

Madrid on foot

8 stops · about 6.6 km

Photo: Marco Pagni from Firenze, Italia · CC BY 2.0

STOP 01 · 11 MIN WALK TO NEXT

Reina Sofía Museum

The Reina Sofía's main building was a hospital until 1969 and became a national museum in 1988.

Photo: Rembrandt · Public domain

STOP 02 · 12 MIN WALK TO NEXT

Prado Museum

The Prado, founded in 1819, holds Spain's former royal collection; Francisco Goya is its most represented artist.

Photo: Cruccone · CC BY-SA 3.0 es

STOP 03 · 16 MIN WALK TO NEXT

El Retiro Park

El Retiro covers 1.4 km2 and became a public park in 1868; since 2021 it has been part of a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

STOP 04 · 16 MIN WALK TO NEXT

Plaza de Cibeles

After Real Madrid victories, the captain places a flag and scarf on the goddess statue of the Cibeles fountain.

Photo: Rifleman 82 · CC BY-SA 3.0

STOP 05 · 16 MIN WALK TO NEXT

Puerta del Sol

Puerta del Sol's clock marks the eating of the Twelve Grapes at New Year, broadcast live since 31 December 1962.

STOP 06 · 5 MIN WALK TO NEXT

Almudena Cathedral

Almudena Cathedral in Madrid took over a century to build and was consecrated by Pope John Paul II in 1993.

STOP 07 · 13 MIN WALK TO NEXT

Royal Palace

The Royal Palace of Madrid has over 135,000 m2 of floor space and is used mainly for state ceremonies.

STOP 08 · LAST STOP

Temple of Debod

Egypt gave the Temple of Debod to Spain in 1968; it was rebuilt in Madrid's Parque de la Montaña in 1970 to 1972.

Travelhour

Plan your Madrid walk

S travelhour.app ur turns them into one walking route.

Free on the App Store

Link in bio

Photos: Wikimedia Commons · full credits in caption